This year the Board of Education adopted new report cards. These report cards are the result of the teachers interest in the marking field.

“That country is the richest which nourishes the greatest number of noble and happy human beings; that person is richest who, having perfected the functions of his own life to the utmost, has also the widest helpful influence, both personal, and by means of his possessions, over the lives of others.”

WE HONOR

Miss Jessie Clay

The Junior Class of 1952 proudly dedicates the Tully Central School yearbook to you, Miss Clay, for your long service to this school. For twenty-nine years, you have taught all the work in the seventh and eighth grades. You have been a class advisor most of your years as a teacher, and you are continually working on projects with your pupils. You have organized and developed the Junior Red Cross, Science Club, and the Yorker Club. You have frequently helped in the Business Department, teaching Business Arithmetic and Introduction to Business.

May we express our gratitude, Miss Clay, by dedicating this book to you. We wish you continued success and happiness in the many years of teaching ahead.

A year ago the Board began planning for a new Industrial Arts and Agriculture building. Classes have been held there since January.

EDUCATION

L. to R.: Fred Hollenbeck, Norbert Finkler, Francis Foley, Earle Ketcham, Albert Walburger, Arthur Goodwin, William R. Padget.

My experiences in T. C. S. have been very interesting and challenging. Although the school objectives are high, the continued fine cooperation of Students and Teachers will insure the achievement of our goals.

ADVISORS

The success of this year's Seniors depends greatly on the able leadership and guidance of their class officers. They, along with the help of their advisors, have reached their goal—the annual trip to New York. You have worked to reach your goal and you certainly have earned it. We hope that we may work our way up as well as you have done.

WAY BACK WHEN

In September, 1939, we began the long journey to gain an education with only five members of our present Senior Class answering as Miss Griffiths took the Kindergarten roll. They were Jane Brenchley, Ruth Evans, Carolyn Herold, Curtis Parcels and Helen Stevens.

With the guidance of Miss Shapley, Miss Northrup, Mrs. Baldwin, Miss Dwyer and Miss Long in the grades, we traveled on to the seventh grade.

In Junior High, we were supervised by Miss Clay and Mrs. Gordon. Although we enjoyed these years, we eagerly awaited our first year of Senior High. Under the direction of Mr. Pearse and Mrs. Carruth, we chose Phil Mickelson president.

In our Junior year, we again elected Phil president and Mrs. Buzard, Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Wing helped our class with the strenuous activities of the year. Besides other activities, we published the Oracle and sponsored the Junior Prom.

We then traveled on to become Seniors and elected the following officers: president, Carolyn Herold; vice-president, Mary Monaghan; secretary, Betty Aungier; and treasurer, Don Whittemore.

Besides the other many activities, the Annual Senior Ball, on January 25, with the theme "Enchanted Evening" and with Williamson's Parisions providing the music, was our main activity.

The final event of the year was the Senior trip to New York City.

As the school year closes and we move out so that another class may replace us, we bid farewell to our fellow classmates and teachers who helped make T. C. S. mean a great deal to us. We leave behind many happy times but take with us cherished memories and our motto: "The ropes of the past will ring the bells of the future."

WHETHER FORECAST

While on their New York trip, the Seniors visited the Empire State Building. Through the telescope, they read their future in the stars.

The nearest star divulged that Jane Brenchley, former television star, has become the number-one model in Bob James' Model Agency. Bob always did like to model women's clothes.

We discovered Ralph Carlton and Betty Aungier have set the world's record for a large family—209 children. They now are proprietors of the Tully Valley Orphanage.

Reading between the stars they saw that Ray Bogart has replaced Vivien Leigh in the Broadway production "Macbeth." However, a slight change has been made. Ray sings "Mockingbird Hill" between acts.

The Big Dipper told us that Tully Hospital is now thriving under the direction of Doctor Donald Kenneth Whittemore, B. S., M. A., L. L. D., Ph. D. However, the business is threatened by Don's illnesses—mainly aches and pains.

It also told us that Marlene Diederich finally bought Douglas Scott, Jr. a car for his new radiator cap for their first anniversary.

In the Milky Way we saw that Janet Beardsley has a partnership in the Atlantic Station. We know that Beas is there to keep an eye on Dick.

The Seven Sisters related that Barbara Long, known as Madame Curie of Truxton Hill, has discovered a new drug to cure those who are pigeon-toed and knock-kneed.

Young, vivacious, Ruth Evans still has many rich, handsome admirers on pursuit. Recently she announced her engagement to Ali Kahn.

Helen Stevens, assisted by her children Bill Jr., Alma, Bob and Helen, now has the monopoly of window washing at the United Nations Building. Helen always did like housework.

Alma McCormick, Mayor of Dryden, has recently been elected to Congress. Alma kissed all the young men—not babies! Have fun Alma?

Carolyn Herold is now starring on T. V. She has replaced Frank Gallup on "Lights Out." Good luck, Carolyn.

Adrienne Fischer is now principal of North Syracuse High School. It seems she just couldn't be torn away from the place.

The North Star revealed that Curtis Parcells, the cement block multi-millionaire of Onondaga County, jilted Peg at the altar, and eloped with Helma Bogner, the Metropolitan Opera Star. It is rumored that Curt will star at the Met next.

We see that Barbara Baker is now in complete seclusion in the Himalaya Mountains drawing cartoons. Her main character, "Toothless Tessie from Tully Valley", is the rage of India.

The Little Dipper told us that Martha Rindge is busy raising redheads. Now she doesn't have so much time to run around.

Roy Drake is still journeying to Cortland weekly to take his Driver's Test. Roy believes in the old saying, "If you don't succeed at first, try, try again." He now holds the world's record of broken telephone poles, which formerly was held by Doug Scott.

And lastly the Man in the Moon told us that John McDonough has taken the place of Joe DiMaggio in the World's Series. John is quite a player.

As the last star grew dim, we saw the most important revelation of all—the Seniors in cap and gown graduated summa cum laude.

LEGAL NOTICES

We of the Senior Class of Tully Central School, County of Onondaga, State of New York, being of sound mind and body, hereby publish our last will and testament. To Mr. Page and the faculty we leave our gratitude for helping us find the pathway to success. To Mrs. Cross and Messrs. Owens and Allen our wishes for success throughout the coming years. To the Freshmen we leave all our good times in climbing to be Seniors. To the Sophomores we leave all our money making projects, and hope you will succeed. Last but not least, we leave the following tokens of appreciation to the Junior Class.

To Alice Carlton, Betty Aungier leaves her ability of being faithful to one man.

Barbara Baker leaves her quietness to Peggy Currie. In the future Peg, we won't even hear you!

Janet Beardsley wills her arguing ability with boys to Jean Kinney. Defend your rights, Jean.

To Norma Schuyler, Helma Bogner wills her ballet ability. We always knew you liked to dance, Norma.

To Paul Garrett, Jane Brenchley leaves her sports ability, but first you will have to grow a little.

Ray Bogart bequeaths his singing and acting talents to George Cook. Who knows, some day you may receive an academy award from Metro-Goldyn-Mayer.

Ralph Carlton leaves his "who done it" books to John Currie. Now you can read all 7th period John!

Roy Drake leaves his musical talent to play the trumpet to Ronnie Granger. Let's see you blow your horn, Ronnie!

Ruth Evans leaves all her boy friends to Joyce Bolt and Shirley Hare. Enjoy yourselves, girls.

To Connie Morse and Tom Fitzpatrick, Adrienne Fisher wills her good-naturedness.

Carolyn Herold wills her leadership to Alfred Reich and LeRoy White. Who knows some day you may become President and Vice-President of the United States.

To Gene Comstock, Robert James leaves his roaring bass voice. Now you, too, can sing solos in the church choir.

Martha Rindge wills her tardiness to Betty Fuller. Detention can be fun, Betty.

Philip Mickelson leaves to Joseph Gorney his position on the Varsity basketball team. Sink im, Joe!

To Lillian Barnes, Mary Monaghan leaves her driving ability. Now maybe nothing will get in your way.

Barbara Long leaves her determination to pass regents to James Seeley. You don't have to worry, Jim.

Doug Scott wills his car to Ross Moyer which is guaranteed to stay between the telephone poles. Now you can really get around, Ross.

Donald Whittemore leaves his aches and pains to Roy King. "Go down and visit Miss Beattie when ill," is Don's motto.

Marlene Diederich leaves her art ability to Dave Abbott. Now you can really paint the town red.

To Laura Cates and Mary Elizabeth Tracy, Helen Stevens leaves her ring. Fight it out, girls.

Curtis Parcells leaves a bottle of peroxide to Anne Foley. Red hair isn't so bad after all, Anne.

To Wanda Fisher, John McDonough bequeaths his father's car. We always knew you wanted to learn to drive.

The Senior Class leaves to Fay Fisher all it's money after the expenses are paid to buy a car of his own. There ought to be at least enough for a 1920 Model T-Ford.

We hereby affix our names on this day of February 27, 1952 at Tully Central School, Town of Tully, County of Onondaga.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class elected Walter Davis, President; Janet McQueen, Vice-President; Martin Vossler, Treasurer; and Dolores Lancette, Secretary. The class planned to put out a yearly booklet for the aid of new pupils and sixth graders. This helps students in planning of subjects. The class had benefit movies at the noon hour a few times a week. The sale of black, red and white shaker plumes was another class project. Other projects made our year a success.

CLASS OF 1955

The Freshman Class met this fall and organized under the guidance of their advisors, Mrs. Hawkins, Mr. Moore, and Mr. Stokoe. They elected the following officers: President, James Gambell; Vice-President, Anne Finkler; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Lou Murphy.

It is not the purpose of the Freshman Class to raise funds so at our meetings we have surveyed plans for the future years and discussed problems of the student body.

The members of the Oracle Staff were elected by the class at their first meeting. The class elected the following staff members: Editor-in-Chief—James Seeley; Editor—Laura Cates; Assistant Editor—Alice Carlton; Assistant Editor—Paul Garrett; Business Editor—Gene Comstock. Later the president appointed a business committee of Gene Comstock, David Abbott, Peggy Currie, and Anne Foley. After several meetings the staff decided on a newspaper theme. With the help of the advisors, they planned for the picture taking by Mr. Kolbe. Then after many hard sessions, the Oracle was completed. Many thanks to all.

ADVISOR

The Student Council was organized in October to serve the school in many ways. In addition to the marshal system, student court, student bus organization for basketball game trips, contributions, and campaigns for Community Chest and Red Cross, it provided many other important services, such as selection of assembly programs, organization of monthly movies to finance activity groups, and a valuable new function of assisting bus drivers through student bus monitors. The Council joined the National Association of Student Councils, and provided special awards to outstanding students.

OFFICERS AND ADVISORS

The Pen and Ink Club started its activities this year by electing Philip Mickelson as Editor-in-Chief, and Betty Aungier as Editor of this honorary literary society of T. C. S.

Seven new members were elected and initiated into this club on Monday, October 1, 1951. They were Walter Davis, Michael Fenlon, Mary Lou Murphy, Carolyn Volles, Gaile Wood, Richard Garrett and Ross Moyer.

As is customary, all new members went to the initiation in full costume and attended school the following day in the same "get up."

The club was not divided into different staffs this year, as was the custom in the past. The entire group met each activity period on Monday to organize the school news for publication in the local paper, The Tully Times.

Under the direction of Mrs. Buzard, the Pen and Ink Club members worked hard to improve its style and provide interesting news to all readers of the "High Times."

TULCENDRA

This is an honorary club for those members of Dramatic Club who have earned enough points to belong. This year the Dramatic Club will present the play "Meet Corliss Archer", a comedy in three acts. The play is based on the famous radio program of the same name. The play takes place on the Archer's back porch in the early spring.

Corliss, an attractive high school girl with a very pleasant personality, likes Dexter very much. Dexter is a gangling, friendly boy and is very much in love with Corliss. Mr. Archer is in his early forties and firmly endeared to his family. His wife, about the same age, is very easy going and tolerant.

PLAY TIME

The Senior class presented two one-act plays in the TCS auditorium this spring. The titles were "Navy Blue and Bold" and "The Ghostly Passenger."

The cast of "Navy Blue and Bold" was Douglas Scott, Mary Monaghan, Betty Aungier, Curtis Parcels, Barbara Long and Carolyn Herold. This play was about a teen-age girl by the name of Pen Adams who mistakes her older sister's boy friend for her own correspondent, who is also in the Navy.

The cast of "The Ghostly Passenger" was Raymond Bogart, Martha Rindge, Phil Mickelson, Marlene Diederich, Barbara Baker, Helma Bogner, Ralph Carlton and Jane Brenchley. The Owens family rented a house for the summer next to an old deserted house which had the reputation of being haunted for years. The young colored maid of Owens added a great deal of humor to this very thrilling mystery.

Standing: B. Long. Seated: B. Aungier, C. Parcels.

CHORUS

Last spring, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin presented their award to Michael Fenlon and John Padget, for showing the greatest progress in their field in a year. The Arion Award, given to the outstanding graduating musicians, was presented to Richard Hoefer, band and Irene Briggs, chorus. Although these awards will be given again this year, their names will be withheld until Spring Concert, the culmination of all musical effort of the school year.

ORATORICALS

The Sophomore Speaking Contest was initiated by Edward Locke, a former teacher, as a class project. Since he paid the supreme sacrifice for his country, the custom was continued by each succeeding teacher until it has now become one of our school's highly contributing traditions.

In June 1951, at the annual meeting the following officers were elected: John Currie, President; David Abbott, Vice-President; Thomas FitzPatrick, Secretary; Curtis Parcels, Treasurer; Roy King, Reporter; Richard Barnes, Sentinel.

October 6-13, Curtis Parcels and John Currie attended the National F. F. A. Convention in Kansas City Mo.

The F. F. A. sold popcorn and seeds for money activities.

Jeanette Spencer is our F. H. A. President this year. Anne Fitzpatrick the recording secretary, and Janice Sherman the treasurer.

Some of our activities have consisted of sponsoring a Christmas box for a Tully family, group singing, learning to square dance, and once a month holding a business meeting.

For our final meeting, we plan to hold a picnic at Jeanette Spencer's home in Tully Valley.

Varsity

The seven remaining Cheerleaders from last year served during the Football season.

After a six weeks' training period fourteen Cheerleaders were selected for the Basketball season—six Junior Varsity and eight Varsity.

The Varsity Cheerleaders obtained new uniforms this year which certainly helped Tully to have one of the best Cheerleading squads in the League.

On December 10, our Cheerleaders attended a Cheerleading Clinic at Solvay. After supper the girls met in groups and discussed problems. After this each squad from all the schools represented did a Cheer and received a rating—Tully did very well.

BASKETBALL

VARSITY BASKETBALL

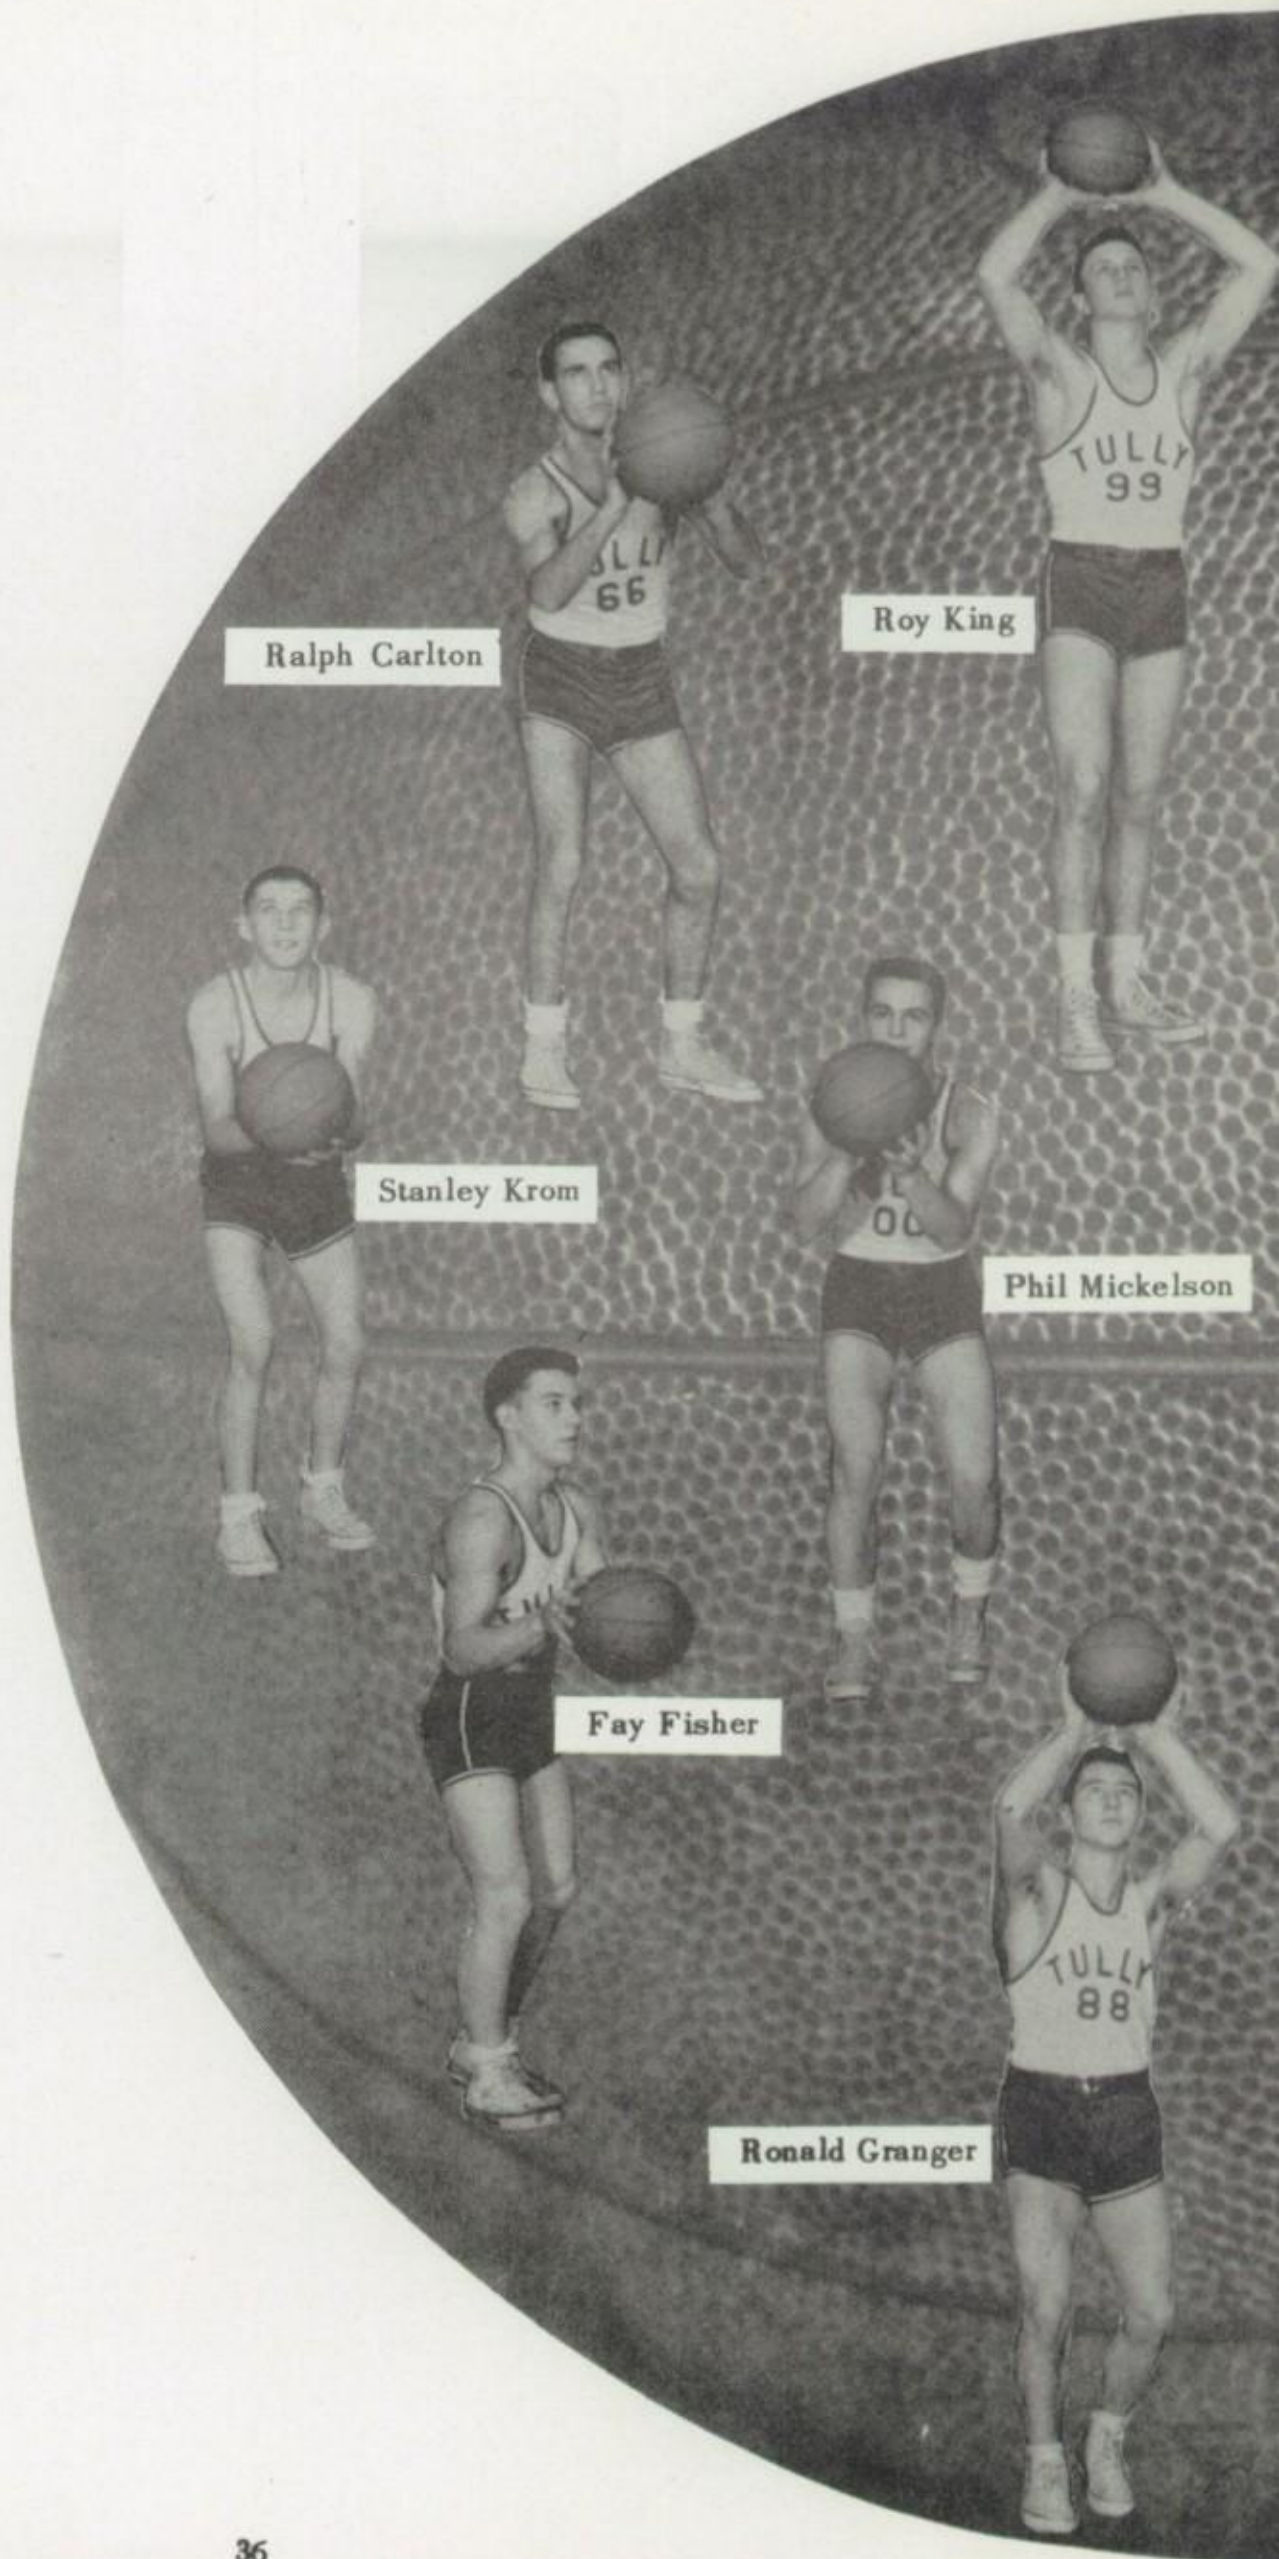

Co-captains Dave Abbott and Ralph Carlton had the distinction of leading one of the highest scoring aggregations in the history of T. C. S. The team had scored 999 points when the season was all but four seconds over. Then a one-handed push shot by Ralph Carlton not only defeated Fabius but pushed us one point over the one-thousand mark.

The individual offensive records follow:

It has often been said, "A team is no stronger than its bench." The individual records show that no varsity player participated in all twenty games. Because of illness, detention, and injury, it was very necessary to have a strong bench in order to compile an 11-9 season record. By possessing a strong bench it was also possible to hold valuable practice sessions. There was no star or anyone who could have been considered a stand-out on the team. A combination of any five from the squad was capable of a good performance.

INTRAMURALS

Our system of intramurals is now in its second year and proving to be popular as well as valuable. Junior high school participants consist of teams captained by Felix Diederich, David Hoefler, Jim Gambell, Bob Abbott, Pete Lancette, and Robert Carlton. As we go to press, the Carltons', Hoefers' and Diederichs' are in the thick of a battle for first place which will mean an engraved trophy being awarded to the winner.

In the Senior high division the teams are captained by Ralph Carlton, Dave Abbott, Phil Michelson and Fay Fisher. The Abbotts' and Fishers' are contenders for the championship which will win for them the trophy in their division.

COACH & MANAGERS

Fourteen of a squad of fifteen, consisting mostly of Freshmen and Sophomores, were new faces on the Junior Varsity this year. A Junior on the squad, Paul Garrett, acted as team captain and he as well as Dick Mickelson were the offensive threats. "Rusty" Spaulding always drew the assignment of playing against the opponents' high scorer. His steady, dependable play was a highlight of the J. V. season. Ray Greene and Dick McKnight were depended upon for their rebounding ability.

Coach Clements

The 1951 edition of the T. C. S. six-man football team made a good account of itself. The record was three wins and two losses and we were undefeated on our home gridiron.

Without reservation it can be said that the team was built around our "brainy" co-captain and field general, Phil Mickelson. Both offensive and defensive signals were called by Phil, and he did a fine job. Roy King, Don Whittemore and "Rusty" Spaulding were stand-outs on defense and it was a thrill to watch the speed with which co-captain Dave Abbott and Ronnie Granger ran. Tom Fitzpatrick, John Currie, and Curt Parcels made a good account of themselves and that J. V. squad did all right too.

BASKETBALL

This year we had two high school Volleyball teams which participated in games with Manlius. The Seventh and Eighth grade Volleyball team had a playday here with Cortland.

On Saturday, January 19, we held a Volleyball-Basketball playday here with Manlius, Fayetteville, and Marathon as our guests for the day.

The high school basketball team had a game here with Manlius in February. Saturday, March 1, eight high school girls journeyed to Manlius to participate in a Basketball, Volleyball, Badminton, and Bowling playday. The high school basketball team also went to Manlius for a Sports Day with Manlius, Jamesville, and Fabius.

The Seventh-Eighth grade basketball team enjoyed their playday with Cortland held in March at Cortland State Teachers College.
